

Flock to the 2021–2022 Café to learn about

AVIAN ARCHAEOLOGY

Throughout human history, birds have captivated us.

Join us this season to gain greater insight into how people in the Southwest interacted with a variety of different birds—from turkeys to macaws—across centuries.

Archaeology
Café

Archaeology Southwest

&

The SMITH
Living Trust

in memory of William T. Lawrence invite you to

archaeologysouthwest.org/cafe

All presentations start at 6:00 p.m. MST via Zoom.

10 / 5 / 2021 Ancestral Pueblo Turkey Penning in Perspective

CYLER CONRAD

11 / 2 / 2021 Turkeys in the Mimbres Valley

SEAN DOLAN

12 / 7 / 2021 Turkey Feather Blankets in Ancestral Pueblo History

BILL LIPE AND MARY WEAHKEE

1 / 4 / 2022 Ducks, Power, and the San Juan Basketmakers

POLLY SCHAAFMSMA

2 / 1 / 2022 The Importance of Birds in Chaco Canyon

KATELYN BISHOP

3 / 1 / 2022 Birds, Feathers, and Ancient Pueblo Pottery

KELLEY HAYS-GILPIN

4 / 5 / 2022 A Rafter of Burials: Sapa'owingeh Turkey Interments

RACHEL BURGER

5 / 3 / 2022 Birds of the Sun: Macaws, Parrots, and People

CHRISTOPHER W. SCHWARTZ, PATRICIA A. GILMAN, AND STEPHEN PLOG

Archaeology Southwest

300 North Ash Alley Tucson, AZ 85701

NON-PROFIT ORG
US POSTAGE PAID
TUCSON, AZ
PERMIT NO. 878

«name»

«address1»

«address2»

«address3»

«city», «state» «zipcode»

Register at archaeologysouthwest.org/cafe